

ESSENTIALS FOR GROUP-FRIENDLY ITINERARIES

What Planners Want (and What They Don't)

 Seamless Scheduling: Efficient, well-timed routes that follow a logical order

 Group-Ready Attractions: Offer group rates, guided tours and large parties

 Built-In Flexibility: Allow for free time, alternative options and contingency plans

 Smart Meal Planning: Pre-arranged dining and dietary accommodations

 Convenient Lodging: Ample double rooms, coach parking and group check-in

 Unique Experiences: Hands-on activities and behind-the-scenes access

 Transparent Pricing: Visibility into inclusions, group rates and add-ons

 Trusted Support: Access to a direct contact for planning & day-of needs

 Overpacked Schedules: Too many stops, not enough downtime

 Small or Inflexible Venues: Inaccessible or unscalable for large groups

 Unclear Logistics: Confusing directions, tight timing and no parking info

 Loose Meal Plans: No reservations, off-route options and limited seating

 Generic Itineraries: Lack of variety or group customization

 Hidden Fees or Surprises: Unexpected closures, costs or changes
